SWANN HAGGLUND KILLED BY FALL OF TOP COAL

Swann Hagglund, aged thirty-five, employed as a miner at the Bellevue mine of the West Canadian Collieries, Limited, was instantly killed on Friday last, when a piece of cap or top coal fell on his head, breaking his neck.

First aid was immediately administered and medical aid summoned, but upon examination life was found to have fled.

Mr. Hagglund was married less than a year ago, and is survived by his young widow.

An inquest was held on Friday evening at Bellevue before Coroner F. J. Turner, with the following jury empaneled: William Kerr (foreman), Joseph Ellison, D. Truett, Roy Gillette, Robert Brown and Stephen Humble.

After hearing the evidence of several witnesses, the jury retired and in fifteen minutes returned with the following verdict: "That Swann Hagglund came to his death on June the 21st, 1925, at about 10:30 a.m., in Room 129, No. 6 Level, of the West Canadian Collieries, Limited, mine at Bellevue, by being struck on the head and shoulders by a fall of top coal, while following his regular occupation as a miner. We attach no blame to any person."

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. Service at the United church was conducted by Rev. J. L. Wright, and at the graveside by Rev. Mr. Wright and the local Union. The remains were laid to rest in the Bellevue cemetery.

Floral tributes of respect were many and beautiful and included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lund (Blaimore), Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hagglund, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hagglund, Mr. and Mrs. Thier (Blaimore), Mrs. Gavelin and Fred (Blaimore), George W., William, Albert and J. L. Goodwin, His Comrades, William McDonald and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Humble, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Naslund, The Hadwell Family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. John Hagglund, Mr. Theodore Hagglund (Blaimore), Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pinkney (Blaimore), Mr. Sigurd Hagglund, The West Canadian Collieries, Limited.

Mrs. Hagglund desires through The Enterprise to thank all friends for expressions of sympathy.

KOENTGES—CHARLES WORTH

A pretty wedding ceremony took place at the Bellevue United church on Saturday last, when Miss Irene, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlesworth, became the wife of William, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Koentges.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Wright in the presence of a large congregation. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink and white carnations, lilies, etc.

After the ceremony, Mrs. Bateman, who presided at the piano, played the wedding march while the happy couple left the church and proceeded to the home of the groom's parents, where a dainty wedding supper was served.

Following a brief honeymoon, the young couple will take up residence in Bellevue.

THE SISTERS GRATEFUL FOR ASSISTANCE

The Sisters of Providence of the Lacombe Home, Midnapore, desire to thank the citizens of the different towns in the Pass for the courteous reception extended to them during their soliciting tour, also for the generous offerings and varied donations, all of which were much appreciated and gratefully received.

A SCHOOL CREED

A creed that has been adopted by certain schools in Wisconsin, might wisely be adopted by every school everywhere.

1. I believe in loyalty to my school, to my home, to my city, to my province and to my nation.
2. I believe it is my duty to be careful of books and other school property which have been provided for me that I may secure an adequate education.
3. I believe that it is my responsibility to keep myself physically strong and mentally fit, realizing that my success in school and in life depends on a strong body and a sound mind.
4. I believe that school life is a part of the community life, and that as a student I have as definite responsibilities as the adult citizen.
5. I believe in democracy and the things for which it stands, and I shall miss no opportunity to prepare myself adequately for the responsibilities of citizenship.

BAND CONCERT ENJOYED

The concert given at the Orpheum Theatre on Sunday night last, by the West Canadian Collieries' silver band was well attended and much enjoyed. Besides the band selections, solos and duets were rendered in very pleasing style by Mrs. S. G. Bannan, of Blaimore, and Mr. Arthur Hadwell, of Bellevue.

A collection was taken to help strengthen the funds necessary for the band's trip to Calgary during the Stampede week, and amounted to $46.75. The chair for the evening was occupied by Mr. W. H. Chappell. The theatre was placed at the band's disposal gratuitously by the proprietor, Mr. Romeo Rinaldi.

The London Daily Sketch said Premier MacDonald had refused Leon Trotsky, former Russian war chief, permission to enter Great Britain as he requested recently.

The Japanese naval training cruisers "Akama" and "Twint" will visit Vancouver August 10-11. It was stated at the Japanese consulate there.

Albert Voigt, a German, has left Seward, Alaska, in a 16-foot, collapsible walrus skin sailboat for New York. He hopes to complete his 6,700-mile trip in six months.

Charles Coughlin, Patterson, eldest son of the late Hon. J. C. Patterson, former lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, is dead. He was born in Ottawa, in 1868, and for a number of years was his father's secretary.

Flight tests will soon be made of television apparatus calculated by its inventor, C. Francis Jenkins, Washington physicist, to reproduce conditions as seen from an aeroplane, on a screen miles away.

Japan's co-operation in any disarmament program negotiations that Premier Ramsay MacDonald and Ambassador Davies may have begun has been promised by Premier Tanaka.

France is preparing to bring into force a wide scheme of social insurance. It will cover sickness, old-age incapacity, disability, benefits, and, to a certain extent, unemployment.

Germans Invent New Ship

Safer and Cheaper Than Existing Models Is Claimed

A new kind of ship is being built by a German ship building company, which, it is expected, will be safer and more economical than existing models. The feature of the invention is the unusual shape of bow and stern, designed to press water down rather than to each side, and to reduce friction on the sides. It is said to cause the water to flow by the shortest route from bow to stern. Three high-speed fishing trawlers recently have been built by Deschamps on the new principle. The builders announce that not only is the fuel consumption reduced 25 per cent. compared with other vessels of equal size, but that rolling and pitching even in heavy seas is reduced to an extent not previously attained. Test trips also have shown excellent steering capacities.

Designs On Totem Poles Are Polynesian

Art Of B.C. Indians Similar To That Of South Sea

What strikes one most of all in looking at the arts and crafts of the British Columbia Indians is the general "Polynesian" character of the designs.

The totem poles are obviously related to those of New Zealand, the models of canoes and painted paddies recall the South Seas generally, and in some of the stone carvings there are hints of Easter Island.

On the other hand, the carvings in ivory and horn appear to link on to the early Chinese jades.

If these impressions are just they support the suggestion which has been made of a "Pacific" school of art, antedating the earliest Chinese art we know; and we might venture that whereas partly through Greek and Indian contacts, Chinese art went on developing, the arts and crafts of British Columbia remained more or less in the Pacific phase.

It is said that the Indians of British Columbia differ from those of other parts of Canada and the United States by a definite Mongolian influence.

Further it is known that the Russians were early visitors to British Columbia, and, sure enough, in the carved skull objects there are distinct affinities with "Scythian" art.

Owing, possibly, to the complete absence of pottery among these Indians, basket weaving appears to be the art that developed most consistently, baskets closely woven of cedar bark being used for cooking and carrying water; and their decoration, generally geometrical, but occasionally representing natural forms—as of the skua gull—in a convention arising out of weave, throwing light upon the supposed origin of pottery—out of basket making, first by dabbing the basket with clay, and then by using clay alone, the decorative being transferred from one medium to the other.

Nearly every member of the hotel staff is an expert mountaineer. For though the funicular runs to within a short distance of the hotel there are often long spells during the winter when the heavy snows prevent all communication with the outside world. Then, the only means of reaching civilization is by ski along dangerous mountain tracks. The Jungfrau hotel had its origin in a workman's shelter hut built by a ramsacker when engaged in the construction of the funicular in 1912. From this dwelling where they ate their simple meals of beer and bread has arisen the hotel that is unique in the world.

A Remarkable Hotel

Built On Swiss Alps and Is 11,480 Feet Above Sea Level

One of the most remarkable hotels in the world is the Jungfrau, perched high up on the Jungfrau, in the Bernese Alps, Switzerland, 11,480 feet above the level of the sea. Built of stone and iron, the hotel is welded, as it were, into the sheer rock of the famous mountain. Snows surround it eternally, and, in winter, it is buffeted by the fiercest blizzards of the Alps. But it gives hospitality and warmth to climbers and to the tourists who visit the mountain by the funicular railway from above Interlaken. From the windows of the hotel lounge one often looks out upon a world of clouds, through which some of the high peaks of the Bernese Oberland stand out like rugged islands.

Nearly every member of the hotel staff is an expert mountaineer. For though the funicular runs to within a short distance of the hotel there are often long spells during the winter when the heavy snows prevent all communication with the outside world. Canadian Delegates For Press Conference

Dominion Will Have Largest Representation At Imperial Meet Next Year

J. H. Woods, managing editor of the Herald, Calgary, Alta., recently called for London, where he will consult with the council of the Empire Press Union in connection with the Canadian contingent of press delegates to the Imperial Press Conference, being held next year. Mr. Woods said that Canada will be sending 20 delegates to represent the 60 members of the Union in Canada. This is the largest representation of any part of the Empire. The last conference was held in Australia in 1925, and the one previous to that, in 1920, was held in Canada. The Imperial Press Conference is being held in London, England, in June of next year.

How Names Were Given

Europe is derived from Europa, in Greek mythology a woman who was carried off by Jupiter, who came to her disguised in the form of a white bull and bore her to the island of Crete. The Greek word is said to be derived from the Semitic "ereb" meaning darkness, evening, sunset. Asia is said to derive its name from the Semitic word "asu" meaning going forth, or rise of the sun.

The "Canadian Mediterranean"

Montreal Journal Sees Important Future For The I.L.R.

Commenting on the completion of the Hudson Bay Railway, Le Devoir, of Montreal, edited by Mr. Henri Bourassa, expresses the belief that the new line to the Canadian Mediterranean will prove a valuable addition to Canada's transportation system, not only as a development road, but as an export route. The richness of the country through which the railway passes has already been proved. Le Devoir states, foreseeing large mineral, pulp and paper, and metallurgical establishments along the road. It applauds also the manner in which the Government is amassing data on the navigability of the Bay and concludes: "It is improbable that the route will become a serious competitor of the St. Lawrence, but it is sure to be useful, and will become so more and more as seasons become familiar with navigation conditions."

Hunts Grizzly In Spring

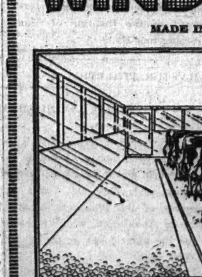

Hunting grizzly bear in the spring is good sport, according to Walter W. Lang, of Milwaukee, who has returned from the Canoe River country out of Mount Robson, B.C., with one grizzly hide and a couple of brown bears to his credit. It is Mr. Lang's fourth year in this part of the Rockies. He was accompanied on his hunt by Richard Lase, also of Milwaukee.

Honor Belongs To England

Frenchman Did Not Originate Idea Of Artificial Silk

Most of the credit for the idea of manufacturing artificial silk goes to France, and the honor has usually been given to Beaumont, a Frenchman. Actually, the first known suggestion was made by an Englishman, Dr. Robert Hook. In 1664 he published a book, "Micrographia," in which he described a microscopic examination of real silk, and suggested the possibility of producing a similar thread by mechanical means. The first machine to produce an artificial thread was made in England. In 1840, Mr. Louis Schwabe took out the first patent and created his machine, embodying spinners, in Manchester, but the product failed to attract and Schwabe committed suicide three years later. Today the spinnerette is in full use, and £135,000,000 is invested in the industry in England alone.

Montreal To Have Giant Terminal

Will Solve Traffic Problems Of "Queen's Largest City"

The bill for the new Canadian National Railway Montreal terminal, which will add to enlargement to a capacity equal to that of the present New York Central terminal in New York, exclusive of the latter's special suburban lines, has passed the Senate and now has full parliamentary sanction. This, at a cost of $50,000,000, will give Montreal a terminal comparable with any in America.

The Canadian National terminal will be set just below St. Catherine Street, between the shopping and financial districts of Montreal. Its construction will change the entire lay-out of the central portion of the city and by its connections underground and by overhead viaducts through the city, will offer a solution of some of the present urgent traffic problems, both freight and passenger, of Canada's largest city.

At present freight is only shifted between the east and west sections of Montreal on the Canadian National lines by use of the heavily loaded lines of the harbor railways or by a haul over the company's own lines to Turcot via Joliette, Hurler and Eastern Junction, a distance of 108 miles. The building of 17 miles of new line in connection with the new terminal will reduce this distance to 20 miles, effecting great economies in time and cost. In addition, the new industrial and residential districts not presently served by any transportation facilities will be rendered available.

The intention of the Canadian National is to offset much of the expenditure of $50,000,000 by leasing the operation of the terminal, which will connect with the station. It is pointed out that the New York Central have adopted a similar plan in leasing the surface areas near the Grand Central Terminal in New York.

The station facilities will be almost entirely below ground. New streets will be built running through or over the structure. A double tube subway for vehicles will be provided running from south to north on St. Catherine Street. All the locomotive power will be electric.

Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railway, has stated that the plans adopted for the station are above the terminal, if the Canadian Pacific Railway decides later to enter into the project.

"What would you say to anyone who sits himself down on your hat?"

"I should call him an idiot—a stupid ass."

"That's all I wish to know—you are sitting on mine!"

It is no good being good unless you are good for something. The tragedy is not in not knowing, but in not knowing that you don't know.

The Improved Glass Substitute

COMES WITH A MESSAGE OF HEALTH

THE sun is the all-powerful life producer. Nature's golden shield, and germ destroyer, as well as insulator.

WINDOLITE is the sun's most important ally.

Medical research has definitely proved that from the point of view of Health and Hygiene, the most effective against the sun's rays are the Ultra-Violet rays, which possess the greatest power for the prevention and cure of disease and debility.

Science has further established that ordinary window glass does not allow the passage of Ultra-Violet rays, so that by using glass we are actually excluding these vital health-giving rays.

WINDOLITE has completely satisfied the long-felt need. Exhaustive experiments have conclusively proved that it is a most effective substitute for glass, that it freely admits the Ultra-Violet rays, and that its use has a most beneficial effect on the growth and development of plants and chickens and on the well-being of cattle, enabled for the first time to have healthy life instead of darkness in their sheds.

Indeed, the discovery of WINDOLITE has during the last six years completely revolutionized gardening, given a new stimulus to poultry breeding, increasing the egg-laying capacity and fertility of chickens, has greatly improved the health of cattle and is now being used in domestic and household requirements.

In the fine old days of side burns and beaver hats, the name McClary meant almost as much to good housewives as it does in these Modern Days.

CHAPTER I

Cool gray dawn of a work day in the modern Babylon—New York. The black curtain of night rose silently, seeming to trail ghostly spirals of mist. Against the sky, flat monotone the irregular and fantastic shapes of the skyscrapers stood out boldly—powerful and mysterious creations of Man.

In the dark canyons of the city streets dark figures moved purposefully toward their destination—factory hands with lunch tins tucked beneath their arms, stalwart construction men who carried the pride of craft in their way of walking, slim girls with the vivid memory of the night's romantic dreams still shining in bright eyes.

But uptown, in the glittering gay places of the city, was a sharply contrasting scene. In the "roaring forties" and "nitty nitties," where debauchees of Broadway and fashionable Park Avenue "make whoopee" through the sleeping hours, the night clubs were ending their day. Through the time-worn doorways came lovely ladies in ermine coats and jeweled slippers, and men with silver-topped walking sticks, and top hats at rakish angles. Their heavy listlessness was broken occasionally by hysterical laughter.

In the lobby of the resplendent Plaza Club, Marcus, the revue producer, helped a pretty young actress into her fur coat. As he did so his arm went around her lingeringly for a moment, while she turned her graceful head and glanced knowingly into his eyes. Another man and girl of the Marcus party walked nearby.

"Well, let's call it a night," suggested Marcus, his hand resting affectionately on the girl's arm.

"No—please! Let's not go home. We can have lots of fun yet."

Her tone was wheedling, her smile gay. She was playing up to Marcus, first, because he was the great Marcus, secondly, because she wanted her own way. And now she turned to the other couple.

"Don't let him send us home yet," she said in the tone of a spoiled child. "We're having fun. We can go to some other place."

The other man and girl nodded, and the actress turned to Marcus.

"You see?"

Marcus sighed, then made one last stand.

"All the other places will be closed," he insisted.

"No, they won't. Blackie Joe's is open—the fun is just starting down there."

The revue producer made a grimace of distaste. "But that's such a dump."

Suddenly the actress seized Marcus by the arm and led him toward the doorway. She spoke rapidly and soothingly into his ear:

Marcus acquiesced with a faint smile and a characteristic shrug of the shoulders. The chauffeur of his handsome limousine sprang to attention and swung the car door open as the party came down the steps. They stepped inside and the car purred away.

Inside, Marcus felt the girl's head on his shoulder. He put up his hand and stroked her glossy hair, keeping his eyes straight forward. Yes, he liked her, but he liked many women. Primarily, this shrewd revue creator was interested in women as talent for his gorgeous productions. His gift for "spotting" talent had made him Broadway's most notable figure in his line. To be "discovered" by Marcus meant fame for any girl.

The car drew to a stop before the shabby exterior of Blackie Joe's place; the party mounted the narrow, unpainted, somewhat rickety stairs; at the top the peephole panel of a locked door was pushed aside in response to Marcus' knock. The suspicious eyes of the doorman looked them over, then cautiously swung the door back.

Inside the tiny lobby they surveyed through another doorway a smoke-filled room and a crowded dance floor, where closely massed figures undulated to the muffled but insistent rhythm of jazz music. An odor of stale beer greeted them, and again Marcus made a grimace of distaste, which he quickly stifled. When the check girl had taken their wraps they moved toward the main room.

This was stunning with a vengeance, thought the fastidious Marcus. In contrast to the brilliant and richly upholstered club they had just left this hideaway of the downtown back streets seemed strangely threadbare and woebegone.

The producer did not like the tippearance of some of the patrons. As his party entered the low-ceilinged main room the dance music stopped and the couples threaded their way back to their tables. A curious and rather sinister quietness pervaded the room for a moment; Marcus and his expensively garbed friends were met by lowering stares that seemed threatening.

Marcus' keen, darting glance caught the covetous gaze of a man at a nearby table fixed on the beaming, jeweled hand of his actress friend. Without a word the producer stepped in front of her protectively. And then—

Suddenly the figure of Blackie Joe himself appeared across the room. He strode toward them rapidly with his best welcoming smile.

"Well, Mr. Marcus, this is a great honor!"

Marcus relaxed with a sigh of relief and took Blackie's outstretched hand. Blackie turned toward the back of the room, calling:

"Hey, Al! Hingade table for four!"

Al Stone, the head singing waiter and prize comic at Blackie's place, spun about. From their appearance these were important people.

"White way, ladies and gentlemen. Here's a nice spot."

The party relaxed about the round, white-topped table. Then Marcus, czar of the Broadway revues, turned to give the order. He looked up into the handsome, intelligent face of Al Stone, the obscure performer. As he did the actress next to him whispered, "Four beers?" Marcus nodded and repeated the order to Al.

The waiter straightened up and looked about for Blackie. These people were important, but he couldn't all the order until he had the high sign from Blackie. He caught Blackie's eye and saw his right hand go up with the okay gesture. Then he turned away.

Who were these people he wondered, forward whom the boss behaved so deferentially? Well, it didn't matter. You could see, to look at them, they had plenty of jack. Later he would sing one of his best comic songs for them. They would probably loosen up with a good tip.

Someone else was speculating on the Marcus party, too. In the background, several tables away, stood Grace Farrell, the cigarette girl, her slim fingers resting on her tray, which was suspended from her shoulder by a wide ribbon. Her eyes were wide with awe, for she had heard Blackie Joe whisper the words, "Marcus Broadway."

"So this was the legendary Mr. Marcus, who made performers famous. But the thoughts of little Grace were not for herself. They were for Al Stone. Even as Al leaned over to take the Marcus' order, her gaze had been alight with admiration for the singing waiter. If only Mr. Marcus knew how smart Al was, how funny he could be, what wonderful songs he wrote!

She tried desperately to catch Al's eye. She must reach him and tell him the name of this distinguished personage!

Fighting Battles Of Humanity

Science Playing Important Part In Lengthening Span Of Life

At first glance it may sound fantastic to say that 100 years will be the prime of life; but it should be remembered that such an age was comparative youth in Biblical times. We have gradually shortened the life span as we have adopted artificial modes of living, unwholesome habits and ruinous dietary habits. Easy living has also played part. Nature was given a chance in Old Testament days. There is little chance that the public will ever be induced to go back to the natural mode of living which made such men as Methuselah possible. A substitute, however, is arising for Nature, and its name is Science. This great modern force is fighting the battles of humanity; it is attacking man's greatest enemy, disease, and it is winning its fight. Almost daily, new discoveries come to light which make us safer from the ravages of harmful bacteria, which show us how to avoid contagion, and which fight disease, once it is contracted. This work will go on and on, and it is on this fact that Professor Klotz bases his prophecy.—Border Cities Star.

Time Has Tested It.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has been on the market upwards of fifty years and in that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. It is in high favor throughout Canada and its excellence has carried its fame beyond the seas. It is more than the price it would be a cheap liniment.

Britain Likes Canadian Honey

Is Growing In Popularity Says Assistant Trade Commissioner

"Honey is fast becoming a staple food on the British breakfast table, and the Canadian product is enjoying a growing popularity," writes Lester S. Glaz, assistant trade commissioner at Bristol, in an article in the "Commercial Intelligence Journal." White clover honey and orange blossom honey are well thought of and South American white honey enjoys a high place in the estimation of the buying public. The British statistics for the calendar years 1924 and 1927 show a total import of honey of 73,201 cwt. and 84,415 cwt., with a value of £201,962 and £221,067 respectively.

Turner Valley Oil

New Producing At A Rate Of Over 500,000 Barrels Annually

In April, 1928, the Turner Valley produced 54,904 barrels of crude naphtha, and 14,303 barrels of crude oil, making a total of 79,207 barrels of oil and naphtha during the month. This is at the rate of over 800,000 barrels annually compared with 481,000 in 1928. From the present rate of increase it seems likely that the Turner Valley will produce well over 1,000,000 barrels this year.

Little Helps For This Week

"My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed—and in truth."—John III. 18.

Let nothing pass, for every hand must find some work to do; Love not a chance to weaken love. Be firm, and just, and true. So shall a light that cannot fade Beam on thee from on high. And angel voices say to thee, These things shall never die.

All the Year Round. There are little things that leave us little regrets. I might have said kind words, and perhaps have done kind actions to many who now are beyond the reach of them. One look on the unfortunate might have given a day's happiness; one sigh over the pillow of sickness might have insured a night's repose; one whisper might have driven from their victim the furies of despair.—Walter Savage Landor.

Competing For Gold Cup

Many Swimmers Will Try England-To-France Crossing This Year. The channel-crossing season is on again.

What Julius Caesar did in a boat in 55 B.C., and Gertrude Ederle did in a bathing suit in 1926, A.D., has been done twice this year on post-noon bicycles, and at least a score of swimmers are in training to do what has not been done since 1923—the swimming of the English Channel from England to France instead of vice versa.

Two bakers, a mattress maker, a couple of stenographers, a nursemaid and a Bohemian mechanic have splashed their way from the coast of France to the coast of England, and it is going to be old stuff.

This year the really ambitious swimmers are out to perform the more difficult feat of starting from England and finishing in France, unfavorable currents to the contrary notwithstanding.

Among the men and women who have announced their intention to compete for the gold cup offered for the first England-to-France crossing this year are several who in previous years accomplished the France-to-England crawl.

Other aspirants for channel fame in 1929 include a middle-aged woman with a family of eight, an 11-year-old schoolgirl, a one-legged swimmer and an athletic though white-bearded gentleman of 60.

Big Aviation Merger

Saskatchewan and Alberta Interests Will Make United Bid For Mail Contract

In the biggest aviation merger in the history of western Canada, commercial aviation interests of Saskatchewan and Alberta have united under the name of the Great Western Airways, Limited, according to announcement made by Capt. Fred R. McCall, managing director of the Calgary Flying Company.

Commercial Airways, Ltd., Edmonton, and Commercial Airways, Ltd., Regina, decided at a meeting in Regina, to pool their interests with the Great Western Airways, Ltd., Calgary, and make a united bid for the trans-Canada air mail contract.

Arrangements have already been completed for financing the Dominion mail contract to the extent of $1,000,000 if it is awarded, Capt. McCall announced.

The Great Western Airways will function as one company under the general management of Squadron Leader G. H. Tudhope, who is at present supervisor of airports and airways for the Dominion government. He has accepted this position with the new aviation merger.

SKY TESTED

Your modern high-speed motor hums the tune of faster transportation. In speed, power and flexibility, the more the the higher way reflect the influence of the motors of the sky.

The oil that was "good enough" for the motor of 1925 is not good enough for the motor of 1929. Higher speeds, higher temperatures, higher compressions, have created more difficult lubricating problems and demand better oil.

Because Marvelube meets the high temperatures and high pressures of airplane operation it is the ideal lubricant for the modern automobile engine. Its rich lubricating properties are inherited from its base—Petroleum Crude.

On the highways as in the airways, Marvelube gives smoother performance, lessened depreciation and real operating economy.

There is a grade of Marvelube refined to meet exactly the specifications of your car, truck or tractor. See the Marvelube Chart at Imperial Oil dealers and service stations.

Many people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The "best" and the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has no physician. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use other methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you have this easy relief. Please do that—for your own sake—now.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acid. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist.

MEET YOUR EARTHLY OBLIGATIONS

The editor of a small town newspaper in Alberta had on his list of subscribers, a Blackfoot Indian chief. Unlike many of the whites who subscribed to the paper, this chief was very prompt in paying his subscription, and the editor, thinking he could perhaps get a story which would remind the slow ones of their delinquency, asked the Indian for the reason for his promptness. He was rewarded by the following answer:

"Huh! some day me die. Me has been heap good Injun, so me go to heaven. St. Peter ask me, 'You pay all your debts?' and look me up in Big Book. If he see that me no pay editor for paper, he say, 'Huh. You no can come in here till you pay for paper.' Huh! me no want to run all over hell to find you to pay for the paper. Huh!"

NEW STATE LAW

During each season a large number of Alberta tourists drive through to the southern states and also visit California. In fact they would feel that the tour was not complete if California was not taken in.

A number of important changes in the motor laws of California have been made, and tourists from Alberta would be well advised to inform themselves concerning these regulations.

License plates must be carried at least 24 inches above the ground, while carrying of tires in front of the radiator is prohibited. It is unlawful to operate a trailer which whips or swerves from side to side, and it is unlawful to use a horn otherwise than as a reasonable warning. Any unnecessary or unreasonably loud or harsh sounds by means of a horn or other warning device will at once draw the attention of the police.

The state authorities have also lightened up regulations covering the use of mufflers. Under the amendments to the act, it is now unlawful to operate a motor vehicle upon the highway unless it is equipped with a silencer or muffler. Motorists on the open highway are required to stop before passing school buses loading or unloading school children, while another regulation says that pedestrians must walk on the left side of the highway.

This seems to be the dawn of a nude day.

The question on a history paper was: "What do you know about Queen Elizabeth and Sir Walter Raleigh?"
The answer given was: "Queen Elizabeth rode through the streets of Coventry naked to save the town. She met Sir Walter Raleigh, who gave her his cloak, and said, 'You look dam cold.' So Good Queen Bess said: 'Dieu et mon Droit'—which means, 'By ——— you're right!'"

I KNOW SOMETHING GOOD ABOUT YOU

Wouldn't this old world be better, If the folks we meet, would say, "I know something good about you." And then treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy, If each handclasp, warm and true, Carried with it this assurance, "I know something good about you?"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy, If the good that's in us all Were the only thing about us That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy, If we praised the good we see? For there's such a lot of goodness In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice That fine way of thinking, too? You know something good about me! I know something good about you! —Selected.

BECAUSE I HAD A FRIEND

Life never would have been so rich To me—so well worth while— But for that cheering word you spoke, But for that cheery smile;
The burden had so heavy grown, My heart was filled with care; I never would have reached the goal Had you, friend, not been there.

Because, because I had a friend, One who was real and true; Because your friendship did not fail Just when I needed you, I had the strength to clamber on, I had the will to do.
Because I knew I had a friend, I've had no cause to rue.

Oh, there are records of the past That tell of trust sublime, Of friendships that survived the test Of doubt, disaster, time; But I know one that's up to date, That had not had an end When a man defeated, fought and won Because he had a friend.

Obedience

Muriel had been to a party and her mother said to her: "I hope, Muriel, you said 'No, thank you,' more often than you said 'Yes, please.'"
"Course I did, mummy. I hadn't seen eating more than half an hour before they began saying, 'Don't you think you've eaten enough?' 'Aren't you afraid you'll make yourself ill?' and I said 'No, thank you,' every time."

On Tuesday a social evening took place at the home of Mrs. Archie Swart, in honor of Mrs. A. S. Donald, who is leaving on Saturday for an extended visit to her kith and kin in Scotland, when a very enjoyable time was spent at music, singing, stories, etc. One outstanding feature of the evening was the presentation of a lovely handbag to Mrs. Donald by her piano pupils on this occasion, time speeding only too quickly, when the serving of a dainty appetizing luncheon, which was heartily enjoyed, brought the evening to a close.

(319) The biggest shipment of live muskrats ever to be shipped from Canada, a thousand in number, were carried by Canadian Pacific Express Company from Oak Lake, Manitoba to Hamburg, Germany, recently. They were trapped in the breeding grounds on the Manitoba rat farm and shipped in boxes, each box holding twelve pairs. They were shipped on C. F. Weidinger Beaverford from Montreal and the muskrats were in good condition with a minimum of casualties when they reached destination.

The Royal York Hotel, Toronto, largest, hostelry, and highest building in the British Empire, will be opened by His Excellency the Governor-General, June 11. The following day will be reception day for guests and the hotel is booked to capacity. The whole water front of Toronto is rapidly resembling that of New York with the building of immense structures of which this is the outstanding.

On the authority of an official report recently issued it appears that the bicycle is gaining in popularity in Canada. In 1928 production of bicycles in Canada reached a new record with the selling value of products 52 per cent higher than in 1927. Last year 27,998 wheels were sold valued at $899,480.

Within the next few weeks the largest re-forestation venture so far made by the Ontario Government will be under way in the planting of 1,200,000 trees in the Thessalon district near the Soo. This is to be largely experimental and as a guide to schemes under contemplation for the future in different parts of Ontario.

W. E. Wilford will assume the title of purchasing agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, Toronto, according to an announcement recently given out by R. W. Roberts, general purchasing agent of the railway. Mr. Wilford will have most of the work in connection with the Royal York Hotel purchases. He joined the company as a clerk in the purchasing department in 1908.

Calgary. — Plans are actively under way by the Calgary Terminal Grain Company to build a seven hundred thousand bushel elevator at Vancouver, it is announced by A. R. Betts, manager of the company. Mr. Betts said that an eminently suitable site had been secured on the north shore, approximately opposite Spillers elevator.

Five special trains carrying around 1500 pilgrims passed through Montreal recently on their way to Quebec City and the shrine of Ste Anne de Beaupre also visiting the shrine of St. Joseph in Montreal on their return trip. They were from the church of St. Adrien, Jersey City and under the care of Father Thomas M. Curry, parish priest, were on their annual pilgrimage of these shrines.

Shipments of freight destined to points in the north-west of Canada via Port McNicoll, Ont., on the Canadian-Pacific lake and rail route will now be expedited, the earliest date being April 8. There will be five steamers in the company's lake service between Port McNicoll and the head of the Lakes during the coming season. Through passenger service will be resumed this season from Owen Sound May 7 and from Port McNicoll, May 13.

Installation of Mack Tractors and Laper Trailers for rapid movement of freight from Canadian Pacific depots to and from outlying terminals has now been completed in Montreal and will shortly be in use in Toronto. The tractor is immediately attachable to one or more of these trailers which each can hold up to 15,000 lbs of freight and can be as swiftly disconnected. They are expected to immensely expedite the movement of C. P. freight.

Immigrants are flowing into Canada at record rates since lately and Canadian Pacific steamers from Great Britain and Europe are bringing them over at the rate of thousands of close on a thousand per ship. The majority are farm laborers of British and North European stock and are mostly going in the land in the Prairie Provinces with a fair proportion going to Ontario and the Maritime Provinces.

Winnipeg. — Despite the heavy movement of immigrants to the West during the past two weeks, more positions are open on western farms than the railways and employment agencies can fill. Immigration and employment officers state. Thousands of vacancies, the officers said, had been reported. Likelihood of an earlier commencement of seeding operations is generally conceded in the West, they added, and unless immigration continues at its present high peak the opening of operations on the land may find western farmers short-handed.

As the result of a conference between members of the Sheep Breeders' Association, financial representatives and members of the Winnipeg and Brandon Boards of Trade, a movement is under way for the placing of 100,000 sheep annually on Manitoba farms. These will be sold in groups of fifty to each farmer, somewhat similar to the plan now in operation in North Dakota. J. D. McGregor was appointed temporary chairman of a committee to make further arrangements for the carrying out of this plan.

Making a fool of yourself isn't such a serious mistake, if you have sense enough to know who did it.

TAKE MEASURES TO COPE WITH LABOR PROBLEM

London, England.—Premier Ramsay MacDonald will preside over a cabinet meeting which will have the preparation of the King's speech from the Throne for the coming Parliament as its principal business.

In the domestic field his chief interest will lie in the measures for meeting the unemployment situation. During the election campaign, Mr. Hon. J. H. Thomas, now Lord Privy Seal and minister of employment, gave some indications of Labor's unemployment plans by way of legislation.

These plans are two-fold, namely:

1. Raising the school age from 14 to 15 with allowance to parents. This is estimated to keep normally 400,000 out of industry for a year.

2. Supplementing the pensions of the workers of more than 45 years of age, so that they will be able to retire. This, Mr. Thomas estimates, will eventually relieve the labor market of another 350,000.

In Scotland, where the percentage of those in receipt of poor law relief is greater than in England, steps were taken to explore the available employment. The Scottish board of health sent an urgent message to all municipal authorities in Scotland asking them to state if they had any ground suitable for road development in anticipation of the schemes and particulars were asked of the estimated number of men who might be employed, with the probable date of employment and the estimated cost.

While unemployment is the government's main domestic problem, it is expected the speech from the Throne will announce the appointment of a Royal Commission to inquire into the liquor trade.

In regard to news, the government is likely to face an embarrassing situation. "Labor and the nation," a pamphlet issued by the Labor headquarters, stating Labor's program, pledges the party to repeal the Conservative government's act which extended the mining day from seven to eight hours. There have been urgent complaints that if the act is repealed the mining industry will be disorganized. At the same time the officials of the Miners' Federation are demanding repeal of the eight hour clause. The executive of the federation are to meet the members of the government shortly after parliament opens.

Report Seeing Huge Meteor

Fell Into Lake Superior Says Prospector Near Soo

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.—A strange tale was brought down to the Soo from Michipicoten Island by Frank Knuckick, prospector, who said a huge meteor about the size of a ship fell into Lake Superior close to the island at 10 o'clock on the night of June 11. The meteor illuminated the island with the brilliancy of daylight and created a rumbling noise which was heard for two minutes after it fell.

Quite a sea arose after the meteor struck the water and the level of the lake rose appreciably.

Solved All Murders

London Police Report All Murders Solved In 1928

London, England.—Every murder committed in London in 1928 was solved and the culprit was convicted or took his own life, according to the official police report.

The report of the commissioner of police showed that there were 15 murders of persons more than one year old. Eleven culprits were convicted and seven committed suicide, the report said.

Will Not Resign

Lynn, Mass.—"I don't intend to get out, and no power on earth can make me." This old age stuff will have no effect on me." This said Police Chief Thomas M. Burkes, who is in his 84th year and who has been a policeman for nearly half a century, recently answer persistent rumors that he was about to resign.

Warning Was Disregarded

Cleveland Clinic Told In April That Film Used Was Dangerous

Cleveland, Ohio.—Making no attempt to fix the blame but pointing out that the Cleveland clinic had been warned of faulty X-ray storage which cost 125 lives by fire and poison on gases, May 15, Coroner A. J. Pearce completed his inquest after a month of investigation in a report on file with official county records.

The warning was sent to the Ohio inspection bureau of the fire underwriters' investigating service last April. It called attention to the fire hazard in the type of film used at the clinic, urged use of another kind and advised clinic officials that the film, if burned, would generate great clouds of noxious fumes. The film was stored in the basement and was ignited by a means not determined in the investigation.

The report placed the official number of dead at 125. They were killed by a combination of nitrogen peroxide gas with carbon monoxide the coroner said.

Confesses To Bank Theft

Eighteen-Year-Old Youth Pleads Guilty In Vancouver Police Court

Vancouver.—Arthur Thomas, 18, pleaded guilty in police court to a charge of robbing the Grandview branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, and elected summary trial.

Thomas, who held up five bank employees as they came to work, was arrested in New Westminster a few hours later and practically all of the stolen money recovered.

The bank was held up as its manager, J. W. Logan, and four employees were arriving to commence work for the day. Each was accosted as he entered and trusted up by the youthful bandit. He forced the manager and cashier to open a vault from which he seized money and then left the building by a back entrance. He left his prisoners in a cubicle, the door of which they broke down shortly after his departure.

Prepare For Another Election

Liberal Party In Britain Sees Possibility Of Another General Contest

London, Eng.—The possibility of another general election in Great Britain at no distant date is being taken into account by the Liberal party, which holds the balance of power in the new parliament. The Liberal administrative committee passed a resolution moved by Sir Herbert Samuel, chief organizer, "to maintain and strengthen the organizations in the constituencies."

It was also resolved that "when an appeal is made to the country the elections will again be strenuously contested by the Liberal party."

Bowmanville, Ont.—Health authorities are taking extra precautions and conducting investigations as the result of the second outbreak of plomine poisoning here. In four days, during which over 100 persons have been affected in varying degrees.

Gels Month's Reprieve

Ottawa.—A reprieve until July 19, has been granted to John Ivanchuk, convicted of murder, who was sentenced to hang on June 21. Cabinet, having considered the case, has decided to postpone the execution for a month. In the meantime it is expected that new evidence bearing on the case will be submitted to the federal authorities for consideration. Ivanchuk was convicted of the murder of License Inspector Harry Constable at Cochrane, Ont.

Forty Believed Drowned

Bogota, Colombia.—Forty persons are believed to have drowned and more than 100 injured in the practically total destruction of the town of Sevilla by floods from the Quindio river after a landslide from a hill into the river had caused it to change its course. Sevilla, which is in the department of Cauca, had about 4,000 inhabitants.

May Revise Tariff

Dramatic Changes Considered By Dominion Government In Report

Toronto.—The Toronto Globe published the following despatch from its Ottawa correspondent:

"Tariff changes which will have a revolutionary effect on Canada's external trade, are under consideration by the Dominion cabinet. In response to demands from all parts of the country for action, the government was taking preliminary steps toward what will undoubtedly be the most drastic revision of fiscal policy of the present century."

"Present prospects are that the vital changes will take the form of a material increase in the British preference, if not the inauguration of complete 'free trade' on the basis of British or Empire goods, while the general tariff, which applies to imports in the United States will remain stationary."

DRIVE AGAINST RUM RUNNERS ALONG BORDER

Windsor, Ont.—With a warning by Attorney-General Price that the crime would not be permitted within the borders of the province of Ontario and with the United States blockade tightening, rum runners are continuing their activities along the border.

Reports in the United States of the export docks at cargoes of liquor destined for United States river and lake ports were being lodged.

Aroused by the reports of the kidnapping of a newspaper photographer and revolver battle between rum-runners and a United States custom patrol cutter, Attorney-General Price announced that if necessary he would double the provincial police along the Windsor-Niagara Falls sector to protect Canadian citizens.

It is along this section of the border that the battle lines are most closely drawn due to recent strengthening of the United States preventive forces.

As a result of the statement of the attorney-general, the rum-runners may find their activities on the Canadian side of the line more restricted. The attorney-general was emphatic that crime would not be permitted within the borders of the province.

Meanwhile, reports from border points indicated that despite the drive against the rum-runners, activity at the border export docks continued. Rum-runners were reported active at many points.

A party of rum-runners engaged in a pistol battle with a United States customs patrol cutter, the cutter being forced to return to port after being peppered with bullets, while the rum-runners retreated to the Canadian shore. The rum-runners crouched behind bags, apparently filled with liquor, as they exchanged shots with the customs men.

At Dunkirk, N.Y., two men were arrested when a United States coast-guard boat captured a motor boat loaded with beer.

Two recent developments were placed before Dominion government officials. The department of external affairs received a report on the incident at Sandwich when it was claimed a private speed boat, not engaged in the liquor traffic, was fired on by a United States patrol boat. Should further investigation warrant, the department will investigate this affair. The department of national revenue was notified of the kidnapping of the photographer of a border cities newspaper but the opinion was expressed that it did not come within the scope of the department.

IN BRITISH CABINET

Lindbergh Sends Message Of Congratulations To Trans-Atlantic Flyers

Paris.—Jean Anoulet, Rene Leferve and Armand Lott, Jr., received by cable congratulations from Col. Charles Lindbergh for their trans-Atlantic flight from Old Orchard, Maine, to Comillas, Spain, in the Yellow Bird.

The colonel's message, addressed to all three of the aviators, said: "On returning to New York I have just learned of your successful crossing. Please accept my sincere congratulations and best wishes."

The French flyers immediately cabled him in reply:

"We thank you heartily for your affectionate telegram. Our greatest claim to glory has been to have followed the route you traced two years ago with incomparable mastery in your flight from New York to Paris."

"Your magnificent example of courage, of tenacity, of science as a pilot and navigator guided us every instant of our route. We address to you our most cordial and respectful salutations."

Alberta Adopts Old Age Pension

Movement Now Accepted By All Provinces In West

Ottawa.—Answering the communication of Hon. Peter Heenan, minister of labor, informing them that an order-in-council had authorized his proceeding to negotiate with Alberta for an old-age pensions scheme, the government of that province telegraphed acceptance of the plan.

When the Dominion cabinet meeting approved the scheme for Alberta Mr. Heenan acted immediately and the reply came back to him within a short time of Alberta's notification. Alberta will adopt the pension system starting August 1, 1929. British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Manitoba have for some years enjoyed the old-age pensions scheme. Alberta's entry into the scheme links up the entire west in the movement.

Sacrifices Life For Child

Cabled French Airmen

Lindbergh Sends Message Of Congratulations To Trans-Atlantic Flyers

Paris.—Jean Anoulet, Rene Leferve and Armand Lott, Jr., received by cable congratulations from Col. Charles Lindbergh for their trans-Atlantic flight from Old Orchard, Maine, to Comillas, Spain, in the Yellow Bird.

The colonel's message, addressed to all three of the aviators, said: "On returning to New York I have just learned of your successful crossing. Please accept my sincere congratulations and best wishes."

The French flyers immediately cabled him in reply:

"We thank you heartily for your affectionate telegram. Our greatest claim to glory has been to have followed the route you traced two years ago with incomparable mastery in your flight from New York to Paris."

"Your magnificent example of courage, of tenacity, of science as a pilot and navigator guided us every instant of our route. We address to you our most cordial and respectful salutations."

WILL NOT FOLLOW LEAD OF U. S. IN SHAPING TARIFF

Grand Bend, Ont.—Independence of action on tariffs is the policy of the government, and upward revision of tariff schedules by the United States, being a matter entirely for the United States to decide, calls for no retaliation or reprisal on the part of the Dominion. This was the key note of addresses by Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, Hon. J. C. Elliott, K.C., minister of public works, and Hon. W. D. Euler, minister of national revenue, who spoke at a picnic here under the auspices of the South Huron Liberal Association.

Mr. Lapointe made extended reference to policies advocated by Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, at present on a tour of western Ontario.

"The remedy he suggests is that we should adopt American methods in our fiscal policy," Mr. Lapointe said. "But our ideas and ideals are Canadian and British, and we won't follow American methods. We will shape our policies, fiscal and otherwise, at Ottawa. We won't take them from Washington."

"We are satisfied with Canadian methods and British doctrine and if necessary we will find other outlets for our trade. We always have in mind Canadian interests. Since 1921 have not the Canadian people been satisfied with the way our financial policies have been shaped under Mr. Robt. Borden's leadership? We are proud to mention during the last election?"

"We have not been dictated to by American theories. We have tried to meet the problems of Canada, as conditions were at the time. British preferential trade treaties have been part of our policy."

"The Opposition lately has been coming to adopt that policy, but the fathers of British preference were the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the Rt. Hon. W. S. Fielding. From the start it was successful and our exports to Great Britain increased $75,000,000 the first year. Last year they reached $440,000,000 and we bought only $193,000,000 of British goods. But if you expect the nations of Europe to give you trade, you must buy from them. Trade, after all, is exchange."

"In view of the figures I have quoted I cannot understand the complaint from some quarters about British goods coming here which they have had to sell us. We have concluded forty-three trade treaties with other nations and our exports as a result were $220,000,000 in 1928. "We will continue to shape our financial policies on a national basis in the interests of all sections in Canada," Mr. Lapointe continued. "We will legislate not for one class, but for all classes and groups in the Canadian people. A country which is as large as Europe cannot hope to live to itself, nor to erect barriers with the rest of the world. The future is with us."

"Let us not look at the past for reasons of doubt and despair, but to the future for reasons of hope and belief. God and nature are with us, and nothing is able to fight for long against God and nature. Our guarantee of success is within ourselves. We continue to improve our methods of production and you may be sure our prosperity will continue."

PREDICTS WHEAT PRICES WILL BE HIGHER 1929-30

Washington.—Using condition reports received from all over the world, the United States Department of Agriculture announced that, exclusive of Russia and China, a world wheat crop five per cent smaller than last year was to be expected for the 1929-30 season.

This reduction, the department said, would probably more than offset the 1928-29 carry-over and it therefore seems likely that world market prices for wheat through the 1929-30 season will average somewhat higher than they have through the 1928-29 season.

The department summary of prospects was made up from seeding, winter killing and areas remaining for harvest up to June 12. The area to be harvested was expected to remain approximately the same as that of the past year, but higher crop forecasts reported to date were expected to be more than offset by lower yields in Canada, Argentina and some European countries.

"The carry-over," the department said, would likely be about 150,000 bushels in excess of the stocks on hand July 1 last year. In the United States the carry-over may be as low as 225,000,000 or as high as 270,000,000 bushels by July 1, depending on how much will have appeared, as feed or in other ways not accounted for.

The year began with an estimated crop of 903,000,000 bushels and a carry-over of 120,000,000, making the domestic supply 1,000,000,000 bushels. Exports to July 1, were estimated at 100,000,000 bushels as compared with 200,000,000 bushels exported last year.

Fatal Airplane Crash

Three Men Death When Seaplane Plunges Into St. Lawrence River

Montreal.—Captain the Hon. J. C. Jervis, M.C., 32, older son of Lord St. Vincent and former aide-de-camp to the Governor-General of Canada, and two companions, were instantly killed when a seaplane crashed in the St. Lawrence River between Point St. Charles and Nun's Island.

The other victims were Pilot C. S. Caldwell, of the Canadian Vickers, and Dr. Wm. D. Morris, 28, of Montreal.

The plane was flying down the river at a very low altitude when it struck two high tension wires carrying electric power from the city to Nun's Island.

According to eye-witnesses there was a burst of flames just as the machine crashed into the water and turned over.

Rescue parties were quickly on the scene, but without the necessary facilities for getting at those imprisoned in the cabin of the plane, and it was feared to be before the first body, that of Dr. Morris, was taken out. Two hours later, the body of Captain Jervis was recovered.

Dr. Morris came here two years ago from Victoria, B.C., where his parents reside. He was graduate of the University of Alberta and McGill.

Air Line Crash

Lloyd, Eng.—The coroner's inquest on the four victims of the air liner "City of Ottawa" crash into the channel, returned a verdict that the persons had lost their lives by gross negligence by the pilot before the fall of the aeroplane into the channel.

Lacks Authority

Ottawa.—The exchequer court has given judgment that the Sun Life Company has not the authority under its charter, to increase its capitalization from $2,000,000 to $4,000,000. The judgment has been issued by Mr. Justice McLean.
